18 TAC members seek dismissal of DCEM, four EMs

FROM A CORRESPONDENT

MORIGAON, Nov 5: Altogether 18 members of the Tiwa Autonomous Council (TAC) have appealed to the CEM of TAC, Paban Manta, to dismiss the Deputy Chief Executive Member (DCEM) and four Executive Members (EMs) for allegedly showing irresponsibility towards the development works of the council.

They alleged that the works of DCEM Muhan Senapati and EMs Jugal Pator, Manu Bordoloi, Binita Doimari and Bindawa! Bordoloi Konwar had disappointed them and made the council unstable. The 18 members have appealed to the CEM of TAC, Paban Manta to hold a general meeting so that they can move a no-confidence motion against them. The members also said that the DCEM and EMs had even turned a deaf ear to the order of the Gauhati High Court.

The High Court had ordered the council to hold a general meeting on 8.7.2016 regarding incredulity, which they had tried to oppose by any means. Besides, the present council body had organized few meetings in order to discuss the development works of the council but the DCEM and four EMs were absent from those meetings.

Medical entrance test

SC to hear fresh plea today

NEW DELHI, May 2: The Supreme Court today agreed to hear tomorrow a fresh plea of a few States, including Jammu and Kashmir and some private medical colleges, that they be allowed to conduct their pre-scheduled test for admissions in MBBS and BDS courses.

"Let these applications be heard tomorrow by the Bench concerned," a three-judge Bench headed by Chief Justice TS Thakur said when a battery of senior lawyers, including KK Venugopal and Gopal Subramaniam mentioned fresh applications for hearing.

Subramaniam, appearing for Jammu and Kashmir said that the entrance test being held by the State administration be allowed to go on as per schedule on the ground that it has been granted a special status.

Venugopal, who represented some private medical colleges of Karnataka, made similar pleas that the pre-scheduled entrance test may be permitted to go on alongside the National Eligibility Entrance Test (NEET).

Similar requests were made by the counsel representing Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu. All these fresh pleas would be heard tomorrow by another Bench headed by Justice AR Dhanoo, which had recently recalled its earlier order and permitted NEET to be conducted.

The apex court had on April 29 said that the entrance test for admission to MBBS and BDS courses for the academic year 2016-17 will be held as per the schedule through the two-phased common entrance test NEET on May 1 and July 24.

Anti-infiltration movement Asom Sanmilita Mahasangha opposes Upamanyu's stand

CORRESPONDENT

TEZPUR, May 2: Stating that advocate Upamanyu Hazarika is going to make the illegal foreigners legal citizens of India through his so-called anti-infiltration movement, the Asom Sanmilita Mahasangha on Sunday alleged that by speaking in favour of about 70 lakh illegal foreigners from East Pakistan staying illegally in the region till March 24, 1971 since 25, 1971 is accepted as the base year.

The indigenous body also alleged that inclusion of the Clause 6 (A), 4 (A) and 3 in the Citizenship Act of 1985, 1986 and 2003 through amendments is an illegal and partial act, which will pose a serious threat to the very existence of the indigenous people of the region.

In this regard, the Mahasangha filed a PIL in the Supreme Court on January 11, 2013 alleging violation

Gogoi and Rohinton Nariman has given verdicts on December 17, 2014, July 21 and December 1, 2015 and March 10, 2016 on the issue, which is known to advocate Upamanyu Hazarika. Therefore, Hazarika should have appealed to the common people of the State to wait for the final verdict of the Supreme Court of India," the Mahasangha said adding that March 25, 1971 is related with the creation of Bangladesh, which has no relation

May Day celebrate

CORRESPONDENTS

SUALKUCHI, May 2: The International May Day was celebrated at Sualkuchi on May 1 with a day-long programme under the aegis of Sualkuchi Tant Silpi Santha, the lone weaver's organisation formed in 1971 under the leadership of Kamal Krishna Das. It may be mentioned here that Kamal Krishna Das had contested in Jalukbari constituency in 1978 against Lakshyadhar Choudhury.

The programme started with the flag hoisting by Biren Das, president, Sualkuchi Tant Silpi Santha which was followed by tributes to martyrs who had laid down their lives for the cause of justice to workers. Kanak Kalita, senior CPM party member, initiated the tribute programme.

To mark the occasion, a procession was taken out through the main thoroughfares of the village. Later, a seminar on the relevance of the day, the Anti-infiltration movement

Asom Sanmilita Mahasangha opposes Upamanyu's stand

CORRESPONDENT

TEZPUR, May 2: Stating that advocate Upamanyu Hazarika is going to make the illegal foreigners legal citizens of India through his so-called anti-infiltration movement, the Asom Sanmilita Mahasangha on Sunday alleged that by speaking in favour of about 70 lakh illegal foreigners from East Pakistan staying illegally in the region till March 24, 1971 since 25, 1971 is accepted as the base year.

The indigenous body also alleged that inclusion of the Clause 6 (A), 4 (A) and 3 in the Citizenship Act of 1985, 1986 and 2003 through amendments is an illegal and partial act, which will pose a serious threat to the very existence of the indigenous people of the region.

In this regard, the Mahasangha filed a PIL in the Supreme Court on January

Gogoi and Rohinton Nariman has given verdicts on December 17, 2014, July 21 and December 1, 2015 and March 10, 2016 on the issue, which is known to advocate Upamanyu Hazarika. Therefore, Hazarika should have appealed to the common people of the State to wait for the final verdict of the Supreme Court of India. The Mahasangha said adding that March 25, 1971 is related with the creation of Bangladesh which has no relation

Yoga training for students held

CORRESPONDENT

RANGIYA, May 2: Under the initiative of Sadhana, a local NGO, children of the locality here are being imparted yoga training for a sound mind and body. The classes are being held on every Sunday at Rajmel Swahid Krishak Bhavan premises where yoga-charyya and secretary of Sadhana Jyotishi Kalita is imparting necessary yoga training to the school-going children free of cost.

The endeavour has been lauded by the guardians and locals who feels that the training would give enough
