

PROGRAMME: WORKSHOP ON EMPOWERMENT OF TRANSGENDER

Date- 22th September 2018

The department of Folklore and Psychology had organized a workshop about how to Empowerment of Transgender in Nonoi College. The main theme was the programme that focused on recognition of transgender persons among the people, prohibit discrimination against them, ensure inclusive education etc. Two lecturers of each Department lead the workshop. Bhanita Saikia, Asstt professor of Folklore department, of this College has delivered lectures on the subject matter and stressed on the seriousness of the topic . She said People who identify as transgender still yearn for their gender identity in this world. They don't have a sense of self among the other genders. Our invited Guest Pankaj Bhattacharjya, Social worker spoke that many transgender people would not recognize their sex in which they belong; it takes much time to recognize gender and to get out of their mental and physical traumas. And Sukanya Bora, Asstt professor of department of Psychology ,Nonoi College discussed about the lack of awareness of transgender people. She also mentioned that some empowered transgender people work as transgender warriors. Finally the programme had become successful in the presence of almost 50 students including teachers of the college.
