Workshop on Critical Thinking & Problem Solving

The Assamese Department of Nonoi College organised a workshop on "Critical Thinking & Problem Solving" On 6th August 2017. Runu Devi, Assistant professor, Assamese department, Nonoi College, welcomed the participants and reflected on the Learning environments that actively engage students in the investigation of information and the application of knowledge will promote students' critical thinking skills. Critical thinking skills are important because they enable students "to deal effectively with social, scientific, and practical problems". Our invited Resource Person Bhanita Saikia, Assistant professor, Folklore department, Nonoi College, spoke on the current educational trend which is to standardize curricula and focus on test scores undermines instructors' ability to address critical thinking in the classroom. The emphasis on "teaching to the test" distracts the learning process from student-centered instruction and places the emphasis on the content. We invited also Meri Rani Devi, Assistant professor, department of Geography, Nonoi College as a Guest lecturer. She was pointed out that as with any skill, critical thinking requires training, practice, and patience. However, by encouraging students throughout the process and modeling thinking behaviors, students' critical thinking skills can improve. The workshop successfully harnessed the enthusiasm and experience of participants. 54 students are present in the workshop.

Workshop on Interpersonal Communication

Date- 17th November, 2020

Folklore Department of Nonoi College organized a workshop on "Interpersonal Communication" On 17th November 2020. The programme Coordinator Mrs. Bhanita Saikia, Assistant Professor, department of Folklore, Nonoi College delivered introductory Speech and also spoke on the basic concept of Interpersonal communication skills highlighting the set of abilities needed in the interpersonal exchange of information; a two-way exchange requiring skill in both expressing and assimilating information. They not only involve listening, speaking, writing, and sending/receiving nonverbal signals, but doing so empathetically, attentively, responsively, directly, and confidently during the social interaction. Invited Speaker Mrs. Kabita Devi Kusre, Assistant Professor of Department of Psychology said that Interpersonal communication is about relationships. There are many kinds of communication. We distinguish one type of communication from others based on the number of persons involved, the formality of the interaction, and the opportunity to give and receive feedback. She simply explained with example that since intrapersonal communication occurs when you think or talk to yourself, it requires only a single communicator—you! In contrast to intrapersonal communication, interpersonal communication is the ongoing ever-changing process that occurs when you interact with another person, 35 students were present in the workshop.

Workshop on English Communication Skills

NSS Unit of Nonoi College organised a workshop on "English Communication Skills" On 5th May 2021. Coordinator of NSS Unit, Kalyan Nath said being able to communicate more effectively will help to build stronger relationships with the people around you, and get your ideas across successfully. He again said that it can be especially difficult to communicate clearly in English if you have not been learning for very long. Even if you have memorised endless amounts of vocabulary, practiced your grammatical skills to perfection and can read books entirely in English cover-to-cover, you still might struggle to express yourself. 52 students are present in the workshop.

One Month Handicraft Innovation Training Programme

Date:1-30th September, 2021

Organized By Nonoi College

Joint Coordinator: Dr. Basanta Bora & Dr. Sukanya Bora

Resource Person: Niruprava Bhuyan

Handicrafts are unique expressions representing a particular culture or community through artisans and materials. Handicrafts are part of a much larger home accessory market, which includes handcrafted and machine-made goods. Handicrafts are mostly defined as items made by hand often with the use of simple tools and are generally artistic and traditional in nature. So Nonoi college is organised one month handicraft(Bamboo) Innovation training Programme . The initiative is based on the sustainable management of natural resources. Inspired by growing local demand for alternative timber sources, the initiative focuses on bamboo handicraft production, providing community members with training, alternative livelihoods and a platform for sharing experience. Our Resource Person Niruprava Bhuyan said that Handicrafts are made from raw materials and can be produced in unlimited numbers. Such products can be utilitarian, aesthetic, artistic, creative, culturally attached, decorative, functional, traditional, religiously and socially symbolic and significant. She taught to make glass, water bottle, coffee cup, designable flower vases, sindur pot, small pots ,earrings box, pots, cosmetic stand etc. These Products are designed to offer green solutions and will be marketed through local cooperatives. These innovative products are also used extensively for day to day life of the people of Assam. She also aware students that the handicrafts sector assumes significance due to various reasons such as low capital investment, high ration of value addition, robust potential for export and also foreign exchange earnings. 24 students regularly attended the training programme.

Workshop on Pitha Laru Making

Date 12/01/2022

Trainer: Meri Rani Devi

Extension and Innovation Cell of Nonoi College organised a Pitha Laru making workshop on the occasion of pre magh bihu celebration on 12th January 2022 in our College. Magh Bihu, also called Bhogali Bihu, is a festival which marks the end of the harvesting season. Since the granaries are full, it is only natural that there is a lot of feasting during this period.

On the first day of Magh Bihu or Uruka, men and women prepare food items like - chira, Pitha, Laru, curd for the following day of celebrations. But the current generation lacks the necessary skills and there is a humongous gap between the skills existing in a person and the skills demanded in the corporate sector. Through this kind of Skill Development Program helps students to develop their skills to achieve their goals and seeks to identify gaps in skills. The purpose of this workshop is to find out what resources are available in the market for self-employment of girls so that they can do a good business, and to help the uncover students hidden potential. In this workshop, our Trainer Meri Rani Devi, Assistant professor, Geography department taught to make many kinds of Pitha and Laru. She said Til pitha is made by rice flour, preferably bora rice, baked on an open surface (tawa made of cast iron) steamed as rolled cylinders with a delicious stuffing of til (sesame) mixed with jaggery or sugar syrup. She demonstrate the She also taught Narikol Pitha, which similar to Til Pitha with the filling of til inside the Pitha replaced by a sweeter mix of grated coconut mixed with sugar syrup. Workshop on Skill Development And Happiness on pre Magh Bihu Celebration

Psychology Department organized a workshop on Skill Development And Happiness on pre Magh Bihu celebration on 12th January 2022 in our college. The Magh Bihu marks the end of the harvesting season. Various cultural programme and games were played among students in this occasion. We all know that it's hard to be creative and successful at work when we are feeling negative and stressed. According to studies in positive psychology and neuroscience, you can experience these and more benefits by increasing your own happiness and the happiness of those you work most closely with. So the department of psychology try to take initiative on this. As the Magh Bihu is also called Bhogali Bihu, which is quintessentially the festival of food so we arranged feast for all the participants including teachers and students. More than 100 students along with faculty members and non-teaching staff wholeheartedly participated in this programme. Not just happiness, Bihu teaches every Assamese to celebrate sadness too. This festival marked certain special occasions in the lives of the farmers of Assam and were celebrated during their leisure periods in between farming seasons, and later became the identity of the people of this land and the community as a whole. Although the connection with nature is now shrinking gradually, these festivals steeped in local flavour are still an essential part of Assamese culture.

Workshop on Open Air Yoga Practice at Ganesh Ghat, Sonitpur, Assam

Psychology department organised a workshop on Open Air Yoga Practice at Ganesh Ghat, Sonitpur, Assam on 4th January 2022. Lipika Das, was the resource person cum Instructor of the program. Banajyoti Gayon, HOD of the Psychology Department and Kabita Devi Kusre explained the relevance of the theme. They stated that open Air yoga classes blend the safety and distance of virtual classes with the communal and energy-building nature of in-person classes. During outdoor yoga classes, student can stay at a safe distance from others while practicing, free of enclosed spaces, while enjoying nature and an in-person connection. But safety isn't the only reason outdoor yoga is becoming more popular. Outdoor yoga brings a whole host of benefits to those who practice it. Around 20 students along with faculty members participated in this programme.

Report

Our bamboo building workshops give people the inspiration, skills and knowledge they need to create a more beautiful and sustainable world with bamboo! We believe in the power of community and in bringing people together: the brightest minds in design and bamboo architecture together with people keen to learn about bamboo as a building material for eco-friendly structure design. When we started our research on items available near surrounding areas that can be used for puja mandap décor, the most commonly available were bamboos. As we believe in nature design, beauty, innovation and in traditional, hands on skills and bamboo grows in abundance in the vicinity and we observed many local craftsmen using it to make various products like baskets, mats, coasters, decorative items etc. So Extension and Innovation Cell of Nonoi College came with the idea of creating the Saraswati Puja Mandap totally out of bamboo. Our bamboo Mandap is our answer to eco-friendly & fancy. 35 students from Kampur College, Khagarijan College, Charaibahi College, Nowgang College, ADP College, Chatia College and of course our Nonoi College students were actively participated in this workshop.
